

2017 KAY LEADERSHIP CAMP SCHOLARSHIPS

March 6, 2017

TO: KAY Sponsors
FROM: Cheryl Gleason, KAY State Director
RE: KAY LEADERSHIP CAMP (KLC) SCHOLARSHIPS

At this time of the year, KAY clubs across the state are beginning the process of securing members of their club to attend KAY Leadership Camp (KLC). As you are aware, the purpose of KLC is to develop leadership potential, to enrich personalities, to create an awareness of citizenship responsibilities and to develop a desire to become involved in those programs and projects which help to build a better world.

Any KAY member (boy or girl, grades 6-12) wishing to attend may do so with their sponsors approval. IT IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THAT THE CLUB PRESIDENT ATTEND CAMP. There is no limit on the number of students that can represent their club at camp, and camp delegates do not have to be an officer or board member in their club.

ATTENDANCE AT KLC MATTERS A GREAT DEAL! IT WILL ABSOLUTELY PROPEL YOUR CLUB TO A SUPERFANTASTIC YEAR OF LEADERSHIP & SERVICE!

KAYAN (Kansas Association for Youth Alumni Network) has set aside funds to assist KAY members across the state to attend KLC. 2 TYPES OF SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE.

- 1. KAYAN HARDSHIP SCHOLARSHIP - Attached is information regarding a Hardship Scholarship available to all KAY clubs. Please read carefully the attached form. Deadline is APRIL 15.
- 2. KAYAN BACK TO KLC SCHOLARSHIP – KAY Clubs who did not attend KLC in 2016 may apply for financial assistance. Please read carefully the attached form. Deadline is APRIL 15.

As always, we encourage all KAY clubs to have one or more members attend KLC. Not only will the experience be a life-changing experience for the student(s) attending – the ideas, self-confidence, spirit, and enthusiasm your camper(s) bring home will make a profound impact for your KAY club.

NOTE: All applications/requests for financial assistance will be kept confidential.

QUESTIONS: Please contact the State Director with questions or additional financial needs that have not been identified. (C/T: 785-231-8895; W: 785-273-5329; cgleason@kshsaa.org)
