Chanute High School

Ecology Day/Auction

Each class in the school goes to a designated area and picks up the trash. Then we have an auction where students and teachers are auctioned off. The money goes to someone who really needs it such as a boy with sickle cell anemia.

Piper High School

Penny War

Get a bucket for every class – put pennies in the buckets. Any silver coins or dollars go against other classes. Money goes to charity of some kind.

Larned High School

Senior Ball

Day after winter royalty, invite all senior citizens in the town to attend a dance with the StuCo. We draw for a king and queen.

Chanute High School

You've Been Raked

Go to an elderly person's house and rake their lawn. When finished, put a sign on the driveway, saying "You've been raked by StuCo!"

Paola High School

Camp Out for Cash

Raise money for the local homeless shelter. Then sleep on football field in cardboard boxes.

Nemaha Valley High School

Duct-Tape (for a cause)

This was our project to raise money for Greensburg. We get a student from each class and had them stand on a crate against the wall. The remainder of the class bought duct tape for $1/ foot and stuck their class member to the wall. After 20 minutes we pulled the crates out and the class whose member stuck the longest won a prize.

Cheney High School

Save the World

Designate a month of social responsibility. Each week in the month has a different charitable theme. (i.e. Feed the World, Clothe the World)

Holcomb High School

Stockings for Soldiers

Get kids to donate items soldiers would need in Iraq. Such as bath items, cocoa, CDs, movies, etc. Stick them all in stockings and mail them out to the soldiers in Iraq. We had over 750 stockings.
