Conference

JUNE 27-29

Ocoee HS • ORLANDO

“Discover the Treasures of Leadership”

The National Association of Student Councils with Ocoee High School in Orlando, Florida and the Florida Association of Student Councils will hold the 77th NASC National Conference June 27-29, 2014.

Since 1931, the NASC has fostered the goal of helping young men and women from around the globe become strong and effective leaders now and for the future. NASC has helped nurture and foster the idea of responsibility, integrity and leadership in thousands of young people. Yukon High School is proud to host hundreds of the world’s best and brightest student council leaders.

The Orlando community will open their hearts to the student delegates during the conference with special activities. Through conference workshops, activities and general sessions, Ocoee High School will prepare the participants for their ultimate lifelong role: to lead this nation forward and create a better world in which to live.

Ocoee High School welcomes the world to its doorstep in 2014 and they have a great deal planned for both students and advisors. So meet them in Orlando, Florida this June and “Discover the Treasures of Leadership!”
