38th Annual NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVITIES WEEK OCTOBER 8-14, 2017

Kansas State High School Activities Association observance of National High School Activities Week

2017 marks the 38th observance of National High School Activities Week. This anniversary presents new opportunities to the KSHSAA and its member schools for promoting this important program. To increase the public's awareness and appreciation of activity programs, a special emphasis on SPORTSMANSHIP will be continued.

The National Federation Sportsmanship, Ethics and Integrity Committee has recommended the week-long celebration of values attendant to interscholastic activities highlight the membership's number one priority . . . SPORTSMANSHIP!

Emphasis on all activities spotlighted by special days of the week

Planning and publicity are the key ingredients in gaining essential public, parental and student support of your activities program. National High School Activities Week is a great opportunity for intensified campaigning to inform and gain enthusiastic support of the activity program in your school system. To assist your efforts, the KSHSAA has mailed this information packet to all member schools with sample news releases, public service announcements and governmental proclamations which you can adapt to fit your particular needs. One of the most valuable resources of our nation, state and community are the coaches, sponsors and officials who devote hundreds of hours to developing girls and boys physically, mentally and emotionally (mind, body and spirit) through high school activities. These individuals need and deserve positive public recognition and support on their day. They need to know their hours of effort expended on behalf of young people throughout the school year is appreciated and acknowledged. Coaches and sponsors are an integral part of the Activities + Academics = Curriculum Partners equation for education excellence.

What is National High School Activities Week?

National High School Activities Week was created by National Federation of High School Associations and the membership of the Kansas State High School Activities Association to encourage student participation in and community support of high school athletic and activities programs. Other facts:

1. DATES: October 8-14, 2017

2. CONGRESSIONAL RESOLUTION

In 1983, the United States Senate and House of Representatives passed a joint resolution proclaiming the third week in October as National High School Activities Week. Subsequently, President Ronald Reagan signed the resolution into public law.

3. SPECIAL EMPHASIS

For the past several years, the Kansas State High School Activity Association's membership has declared sportsmanship its Number One Priority. Activities Week presents an opportunity for the acknowledgement and advancement of the critical relationship between sportsmanship, ethics and integrity and interscholastic activity programs. To this end, the National Federation and its membership encourages high schools across the nation to initiate sportsmanship programs in their schools and communities.

4. SPECIAL DAYS

- Sunday, October 8, National "Be A Sport" Day—Through promotion of "Be A Sport" Day, the KSHSAA hopes that discussion is sparked, awareness is raised and action taken. Stands for proper behavior must be taken by players, coaches, officials, students, parents, fans, cheerleaders and administrators. Support KSHSAA Rule 52, Citizenship/Sportsmanship throughout the year. Activities Week was developed to increase the public's awareness of the values and needs of activity programs. National Sportsmanship Day was started in 1989 as part of the National Federation's renewed effort to stress sportsmanship, ethics and integrity throughout the high school community.
- Monday, October 9, National Fine Arts Activities Day—established to promote the non-athletic activities for which the National Federation provides national services; a time to focus on the millions of students, coaches and sponsors involved in non-athletic activity programs.
- Tuesday, October 10, National Officials/Judges Day—established and proclaimed by the National Federation Officials Association (NFOA), a time to salute the 500,000 individuals who serve as contest officials and judges.
- Wednesday, October 11, National Youth Health Awareness Day—a time to address the problem of alcohol and other drug use in the nation's schools; the National Federation and National Wellness programs should be promoted throughout the country and state.
- Thursday, October 12, National Coaches/Sponsors/Advisors Day—This day has been set aside in cooperation with the National Federation Coaches Association (NFCA) to recognize and honor coaches/sponsors/advisors of all activities. Each school and community is urged to honor its high school coaching staff at assemblies, games or civic gatherings.
- Friday, October 13, National Fan Appreciation Day—a time to recognize loyal fans and teachers for their support of athletic/activity programs.
- Saturday, October 14, National Community Service/Participation Day—a time to recognize the many student and community groups that support activities programs such as KAY, Student Council, PTA, etc.

The case for high school activities is strong — be a participant!

STATE OF KANSAS

Proclamation by the GOVERNOR

TO THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, The major purpose of high school activities should be an extension of the student's education and a wholesome vent for their energies and talents in other than a formal classroom setting; and

WHEREAS, Participation in activities encompasses all races and creeds, and teaches our youth that it is a privilege and an honor to represent his/her school; and

WHEREAS, The school and community should be made aware of how students feel about activity participation and what it has meant to them; and

WHEREAS, The general public should be made aware of the cooperation, dedication, leadership and other personal values gained by the students involved in the school's activities; and

WHEREAS, The men and women working in the school activities spend many hours guiding students in solving problems of school activities and everyday life:

NOW, THEREFORE, I SAM BROWNBACK, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF KANSAS, do hereby proclaim October 8-14, 2017 as:

National High School Activities Week

in Kansas, and urge all citizens to reaffirm their support of school activities as a means to encourage the students involved and to show appreciation to the directors of those activities.

NATIONAL BE A SPORT DAY

National High School Activities Week
October 8-14, 2017

Sportsmanship remains the number one priority of the National Federation and the KSHSAA for the 2017-18 school year.

This slogan and logo was adopted by the National Sportsmanship Committee (NSC) which is composed of eight national organizations representing both amateur and professional levels of sports: National Federation of State High School Associations, National Collegiate Athletic Association, National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, National Junior College Athletic Association, Major League Baseball, National Basketball Association, National Football League and the National Hockey League.

The National Federation Sportsmanship, Ethics and Integrity Committee has approved the “Be A Sport” logo and encourages its use again this year. The “Be A Sport” logo includes a handshake, which symbolizes the desired spirit of competition at all levels. The logo is being disseminated within each organization of the NSC and will be seen on television, at stadiums and arenas, and in printed materials at every level of athletics.

NATIONAL FINE ARTS ACTIVITIES DAY

National High School Activities Week
October 8-14, 2017

High schools in Kansas and across the nation will be recognizing and honoring their music and speech directors, coaches and conductors Monday, October 9, which has been declared National Fine Arts Activities Day.

The Kansas State High School Activities Association (KSHSAA) is calling upon the State of Kansas to recognize the valuable contributions which dedicated professionals make to the education of young people and, through them, to the American society. Each school and community is urged to honor their high school fine arts staff members at school assemblies, through the news media and at civic gatherings.

Some of the most valuable resources of our nation, state and community are the individuals who devote hundreds of hours to develop boys and girls mentally, physically and emotionally through interscholastic activities.

Over 75,000 high school musicians and an additional 12,000 debate and speech students participated in the interscholastic activity program of Kansas in 2016-17. Truly, the time spent by instructors working with these thousands of young people is immeasurable.

Directors, coaches and conductors deserve public recognition and support this day. They need to know the hours of effort expended on behalf of millions of youngsters throughout the school year is appreciated and acknowledged. They are very deserving of the attention which they will receive on National Fine Arts Activities Day, October 9.

NATIONAL OFFICIALS DAY

National High School Activities Week
October 8-14, 2017

Sports officials and activity judges throughout the nation will be recognized and honored on Tuesday, which has been declared National Officials Day.

The Kansas State High School Activities Association (KSHSAA) is calling all Kansans to recognize the valuable contributions these individuals make to all activity programs.

Officials, regardless of sport or activity, are an integral part of all activities. Their loyalty to the rules of the activity, with a neutral application of the rules, is based on their desire to insure fairness for all contestants.

Judges and officials deserve public recognition and support on their day. They need to know their dedication is a service to the youth of the nation.

Judges and officials, the neutral component. Where would we be without them?

NATIONAL YOUTH HEALTH AWARENESS DAY

National High School Activities Week
October 8-14, 2017

Schools across the United States will once again focus attention on the issue of chemical health—tobacco, alcohol and other drug abuse—by designating Wednesday as Youth Health Awareness Day.

The Kansas State High School Activities Association has developed a program of support services to all member middle/junior high and senior high schools in Kansas. Wellness KANSAS reaches in excess of 100,000 Kansas students (grades 7-12) with messages of chemical health annually through their involvement in school activities.

This year's Youth Health Awareness Day activities throughout Kansas and the nation will include:

1. Parental and community support for students through symbolic acts and sponsorship of activities for students
2. Coaches setting aside a portion of practice time to discuss chemical health issues with athletes
3. Student panel discussions and forums
4. Guest speakers and school assemblies
5. Audio visual media presentations
6. Patches and insignias worn by students and athletes
7. Senior high school athletes visiting younger students and teaching refusal and decision-making skills
8. Special banners, posters and team run-throughs for interscholastic contests
9. Resolutions and proclamations in support of students' efforts by boards of education and city governments
10. Special public address announcements made at activity events and media promotions

NATIONAL COACHES/SPONSORS ADVISORS DAY

National High School Activities Week
October 8-14, 2017

The Kansas State High School Activities Association is calling upon the State of Kansas to recognize the valuable contributions which coaches/sponsors/advisors make to the education of young people and, through them, to American society. Each school and community is urged to honor its school activities staff at school assemblies, at halftimes of games and other events, or at civic gatherings on October 12.

Among the most valuable resources of our nation, state and community are the coaches who devote hundreds of hours to developing girls and boys mentally, physically and emotionally (mind, body and spirit) through interscholastic athletics/activities. Truly, the time spent by coaches working with the millions of youngsters competing in interscholastic athletic programs is immeasurable.

Coaches/sponsors/advisors need public recognition and support on their day. They need to know the hours of effort expended on behalf of millions of youngsters throughout the school year is appreciated and acknowledged. They are very deserving of the attention which they will receive on National Coaches/Sponsors/Advisors Day.

This national observance was first authorized by Public law 92-409, passed by Congress in August, 1972, and signed by Former President Richard Nixon. Through the joint efforts of the National Federation Coaches Association, the National Sporting Goods Association and the National Federation of State High School Associations, this special day was set aside to draw attention to the interscholastic program, to recognize our best coaches/sponsors/advisors, and to motivate all coaches to do the best possible job of educating boys and girls through interscholastic programs.

NATIONAL FAN APPRECIATION DAY

National High School Activities Week
October 8-14, 2017

Your ticket to an interscholastic athletic event is a privilege, a privilege to watch youngsters learn on the playing field. One of the lessons taught to players is one spectators can follow as well—that of good sportsmanship. Unruly behavior is unacceptable in the classroom, and the athletic field is a classroom.

“One person practicing good sportsmanship is far better than fifty others
preaching about it.”

—Knut Rockne—

NATIONAL COMMUNITY SERVICE PARTICIPATION DAY

National High School Activities Week
October 8-14, 2017

The Kansas Association for Youth (KAY) is a character-building, leadership training, service organization directed by the KSHSAA. This nationally acclaimed program provides students an opportunity to learn to assume their citizenship responsibilities by providing service to their school, community, nation and world. These service projects produce an awareness and put citizenship into action.

The KAY Handbook contains numerous ideas for service projects. Some community service ideas include:

ADOPT-A-HIGHWAY—Assist in cleaning up litter on the highway roadside. KDOT is looking for non-profit groups of individuals (over 11 years of age) to adopt 2-3 miles of highway. KDOT provides safety vests, bags and a roadside sign, designating your group's adoption. They ask that you clean the highway three times a year. Please call your area KDOT office for information, or call 785-296-3585.

BLOODMOBILE — Assist with publicity and registration; encourage donors to give.

CLEAN UP & BEAUTIFICATION BRIGADE — Rake leaves, pull weeds and pick up trash in the city park, etc. Clean up roadways leading into the community. Paint park benches or areas with graffiti, etc.

COMMUNITY RUMMAGE SALE — Organize a community-wide rummage sale; secure site, publicize, offer to pick up items; arrange for concessions, etc.

HEALTH FAIR — Distribute brochures on a wide variety of topics; provide cholesterol screenings, etc.

SENIOR CITIZENS — Offer an "errand-running" service for the elderly in your community. Offer to do odd jobs for those unable to maintain their yards.

WALKER SAFETY — Draw a map of safe areas around town and provide mileage for each route.

WINTER SAFETY MEETINGS — Promote safety. Hold a community-wide assembly on severe winter driving, being stranded, survival and winter car maintenance.

Proclamation by the Governor

The major purpose of high school activities should be an extension of the student's education and a wholesome vent for their energies and talents in other than a formal classroom setting.

Men and women working in school activities spend many hours guiding students in solving problems of school activities and everyday life.

In signing the proclamation shown on page 5 of this activity booklet, the Honorable Governor Sam Brownback invites all citizens to reaffirm their support of school activities as a means to encourage the students involved and to show appreciation to the directors of those activities.

Below, Governor Sam Brownback is shown signing the proclamation designating the week of October 8-14, 2017 as National High School Activities Week in Kansas.

“One individual cannot do it all, and the sum of the team’s efforts is far greater than the individual. . . .”

Elisabeth M. Wilson, Emmaus, Pennsylvania

Governor Sam Brownback and KSHSAA Executive Director Gary Musselman and Assistant Executive Directors Cheryl Gleason and David Cherry meet for the signing of the proclamation.

How can we PROMOTE Activities Week?

The key to the week is TOTAL INVOLVEMENT of school and community groups. Here are some suggestions:

1. Select a prominent person from your community to serve as chairperson of “Activities Week” and develop a public awareness program (news releases and conferences, radio and television appearances, etc.) using the community chairperson’s involvement and reputation. This chairperson may agree to assist in or direct (under school supervision) the week’s activities and promotion.
2. Mail letters to the leaders of civic groups in your community informing them of “Activities Week,” and each special emphasis day. (See sample letter in this brochure.)
3. Mail a letter to your mayor requesting his/her support of National High School Activities Week.
4. Request a proclamation be signed by your mayor designating National High School Activities Week in your community. (See sample proclamation in this brochure.) Incorporate the Governor’s Proclamation in your message. Indicate the federal government recognizes that school academics and activities are complementary and necessary to the proper development of future United States citizens.
5. Deliver a news release in September and October on “Activities Week” (and each special emphasis day) to the newspaper, radio and television offices in your community. (Sample news releases are included in this brochure.) Supplement this release with reports on the scope and value of your interscholastic program and the special events planned in conjunction with “Activities Week.”
6. Distribute “spot” public service announcements to radio and television stations in your area. Distribute promotional messages to newspapers, radio and television. (See sample messages and public service announcement scripts in this brochure.)
7. A speakers bureau could be developed to be used by the various civic and community groups. These speakers could be scheduled to address groups during “Activities Week” and be available for the remainder of the school year to promote your activities programs.
8. Arrange for newspaper, radio and television coverage of activities planned by school administration/faculty, students, student organizations and community to observe “Activities Week.” This is done by accurately informing media well in advance of names, places and specific events.
9. Put an announcement in the student newspaper and in each athletic contest program during September and October promoting National High School Activities Week.
10. Plan and actively promote activities to involve faculty, students and community each day of National High School Activities Week.

SAMPLE Promotional Messages:

1. During the week of October 8-14, communities across the United States will make an investment in America’s greatest resource—its youth—by celebrating National High School Activities Week. Please call your school to learn how you can help.
2. The membership of the Kansas State High School Activities Association coordinates interscholastic activities programs for almost 800 middle/junior and senior high schools in Kansas. The activities range from football to forensics and from basketball to band. Thousands of boys and girls enjoy these programs and are educated through them. School activities are the other half of education.
3. Because they’re fun, high school activities attract thousands of participants each year. But school activities also educate, helping boys and girls develop mentally, physically and emotionally. The Kansas State High School Activities Association urges you to support this valuable part of education.
4. America’s greatest resource—its youth—needs the continual guidance, friendship and leadership provided through participation in high school athletics. Without another great American resource—the high school coach—this would not be possible. The Kansas State High School Activities Association strongly urges all communities and schools to honor coaches during National High School Activities Week, October 8-14. Help keep America’s youth strong.
5. School Activities + Academics = Curriculum Partners in Education Excellence is supported by approximately two percent of the school budget in most communities. That’s the best bargain in education. The Kansas State High School Activities Association urges you to support high school activities which educate boys and girls with unmatched economic efficiency.

Public Service Announcements for Radio and Television

1. Good sportsmanship is learned, practiced and executed. Respect for the opponent, spectators, coaches and officials is a must at all levels of athletics. Join the nation’s 21,000 high schools and celebrate National “Be A Sport” Day on October 8. A public service message from: (—name of state association—) and (—radio or TV station—).
2. On October 8, National “Be A Sport” Day will be celebrated throughout the high school athletic community. It is a time to remember that our behavior should be characterized by generosity and genuine concern for others. Display good sportsmanship the next time you attend an athletic event. A public service message from (—name of state association—) and (—radio or TV station—).
3. Too often, we focus on poor displays of sportsmanship at athletic events. National “Be A Sport” Day on October 8 is a day set aside by the nation’s 21,000 high schools to emphasize the need for good sportsmanship at every level of athletics. “Be a Sport” — support National “Be A Sport” Day. A public service message from (—name of state association—) and (—radio or TV station—).

FACT—National “Be A Sport” Day is a part of Kansas High School Activities Week, which was created by the National Federation of State High School Associations in 1980. The first National Sportsmanship Day celebrated by the National Federation and its member state high school associations was in 1989.

FACT—National “Be A Sport” Day was designated an official event during Activities Week to emphasize that sportsmanship is essential to realizing the objectives of interscholastic activities.

FACT—In 2017, National “Be A Sport” Day serves to help “kick off” sportsmanship awareness programs sponsored by high schools across the nation. The NFHS and many of its member state associations stand ready to provide suggestions and materials to help high schools in their efforts to make SPORTSMANSHIP THE NUMBER ONE PRIORITY....BE THE EXAMPLE!

Academics + Activities = Curriculum Partners

Why have student activities?

In the last few years the value of high school activities has been questioned. First of all, they are not separate but an integral part of our overall education program. A good, well-rounded education means not only one that is academically oriented, but one that also includes physical, social and emotional development. These are available through a good school activities program.

Activities are a citizenship laboratory

Participation in activities encompasses all races and creeds and teaches a student that it is a privilege and an honor to represent his or her school. Students learn that activities are important because they show a person how to win and how to lose. Activities teach self-confidence, poise, respect for the rules and good sportsmanship. Through participation in activities, students learn tolerance and understanding for people and how to control their emotions. They also learn the self-satisfaction of accomplishing a goal.

Activities provide “growing up” experiences

Interscholastic activities constitute a part of the right kind of growing experiences for American boys and girls. Youth are interested in doing things well—in belonging—in displaying loyalty. With a well-administered school program, students and spectators become better citizens through participation and observance of activities conducted under established rules impartially administered.

Activities encourage physical and mental excellence

Documented reports and statistics from the high schools of Kansas continue to show the “holding power” of the activities program. Those students engaged in any phase of the extracurricular program show a drop-out rate far below that of the uninvolved student. Over 90 percent of students who drop out of school at the senior high level have never been involved in any activity as representatives of their school!

Participation increased GPA

Grade point averages of students in athletics, speech, music, spirit groups, club programs, etc., rank well above those students who choose not to participate. Statistics point out “the more participation, the better the GPA.”

Activities reach out to the community

Activities in our Kansas schools will be as good and as sound as those who administer and support them. Rules and regulations are valueless unless they are embedded in the “grass roots” of the local school and community. The underlying philosophy of interscholastic activities presupposes that they are for the good of the students themselves—just as are the other phases of the educational program. This is the way the citizens of Kansas want them to be.

There Are Little Eyes Watching

*There are little eyes upon you,
And they're watching night and day.
There are little ears that quickly
Take in every word you say.
There are little hands all eager
To do anything you do;
And a little one who's dreaming

*You're the little child's idol;
You're the wisest of the wise.
In their little mind about you,
No suspicions ever rise;
They believe in you devoutly,
Hold all you say and do,
They will say and do, in your way,
When they've grown up to be like you.*

*There are wide-eyed little children
Who believe you're always right;
And their ears are always open
And they're watching day and night;
You are setting an example
Every day in all you do,
For the little ones who are waiting
To grow up and be like you.*
