In non-school sports, nobody's cheering for you. In high school sports, everybody is.

Nothing brings communities together like high school sports. Whether it's playing a Friday night game in a sold-out gym or making a run at a conference championship, nothing compares to the thrill of wearing the uniform of your high school.

In non-school sports, you can make the team. But in high school sports, you can make history.

Wearing the uniform of your high school comes with a big responsibility. Your community cheers for you. Your teammates count on you. And you have the opportunity to make history by competing for a state championship. Do you have what it takes?

THIS IS WHAT MATTERS...

THIS IS BEYOND X'S AND O'S...

THIS IS THE DIFFERENCE MUTUAL RESPECT MAKES...

THIS IS HOW CONTESTS SHOULD BE PLAYED...

THIS IS WHAT CHARACTER LOOKS LIKE...

THIS IS WHAT DEFINES US...

THIS IS SPORTSMANSHIP.

If an individual student athlete or team wins, it's an amazing thing.
It's also just the icing on the cake.

Young people who participate in education-based athletics are already winners. Studies show that, win or lose, participation helps to impart skills they can use to enjoy greater success in other areas of their lives. That's what makes school sports a winning part of a complete education.

THANKS, COACH

Without a committed team of coaches and athletic administrators, education-based athletics just wouldn't be possible. Coaches do more than give motivational speeches. They identify, nurture, and help realize the potential of today's youth. They don't do it for the money. They do it because they care. Simply put, they bring out the best in all of us.

Thanks, Coach

Without a committed team of coaches and athletic administrators, education-based athletics just wouldn't be possible. Coaches are role models, educators, and advisors. They encourage excellence in and out of the classroom. Their work requires extraordinary amounts of time and energy, for very little pay. Simply put, they bring out the best in all of us.

He worked out early, practiced late,
and then studied deep into the night.

The next day, he did it all over again.

He knew the extra effort he made being a student-athlete today...

...would help him do even bigger things in life tomorrow.

There's just one place where students are students first,
where athletics are played with
purpose and perspective,

and where young athletes develop the discipline and confidence they need to be leaders in life.

That place is the high school
in your community.
