

Hodgeman County High School KAY members took on day care duties during a Community Conversation event. The Hodgeman County KAY members assured a safe and fun environment for three active toddlers of the moms who were participating next door at the King Center. Great job, Hodgeman County KAY Club!

Mark your calendars!!

FINISHING STRONG!

With the conclusion of winter sports, we are getting in gear for all that the spring months bring! Many of you will be very busy with spring activities, seniors are preparing for graduation, many juniors are planning prom, etc. Be sure to prepare NOW for your April and May activities. How do you recognize your club and all of your accomplishments? It is important to recognize all the SUPERFANTASTIC service projects and great work your club has completed this year - be sure to celebrate YOU!!

AREA PRESIDENT NEWSLETTERS

Be sure to check out the Area Newsletters created by our SUPERFANTASTIC Area Presidents! The newsletters are available by going to the KSHSAA KAY website, clicking on "Elected Leaders" and "Area Presidents."

2025-2026 THEME

Above & Beyond is the theme for the 25-26 school year! We look forward to kicking off this fun theme at KLC 2025!

The Royal Valley KAY Club worked on tie blankets at the Wabaunsee Unit Conference.

THRIVING YOUTH:

REMINDER: Be sure to submit the Thriving Youth reporting form by April 15, 2025 to ensure your club receives credit and the $100 reimbursement courtesy of Sunflower Health.
